Jun Martínez (b. 1992, Bayamón, Puerto Rico)

Jun Martínez (b. 1992, Bayamón, Puerto Rico) is a London-based painter whose work explores the intersections of landscape, memory, and perception. He received a BA in Fine Arts from the University of Puerto Rico and an MA in Painting from the Royal College of Art, London, where he was awarded the Valerie Beston Artists' Trust Prize in 2024. Martínez first gained recognition through his participation in the 2da Gran Biental Tropical (Puerto Rico, 2016), curated by Pablo León de la Barra and Radamés "Juni" Figueroa, and later participated in the Third Biennial of the Museo de Arte de Puerto Rico (San Juan, Puerto Rico, 2023). Recent solo exhibitions include At the centre there is a stillness at Cecilia Brunson Projects (London, UK, 2026); Donde el Sol se Refugia at Adhesivo Contemporary (Mexico City, 2026); Perennial Paroxysm at Ordovas (London, UK, 2025); The Hymn of the Toads at Matt Carey-Williams (London, UK, 2025); and Hermano de las Flores at Museo de San Juan (San Juan, Puerto Rico, 2025). He was also shortlisted for the Chadwell Award and is emerging as one of the most promising voices of a new generation of Caribbean painters.
